Student Name _____________________________  Advisor ___________________________

Student ID Number ________________________

To earn a second Bachelor’s degree in Visual Art, all the courses on this sheet need to be completed. Art courses taken at BSU or another school will be counted toward these requirements. No core or other non-art classes are required. You must maintain a 3.0 Grade Point Average in Art/Art History courses. Official transcripts from other schools must be sent to the BSU Registrar’s Office. The Department Chair of Advising Coordinator must approve this form and evaluate any transfer courses. A copy will be given to the student and a copy sent to the registrar. One semester before you plan to graduate, obtain a BFA Approval Form from the Art Department. It must be signed by the Department Chair or the Advising Coordinator and turned in with your graduation application. After completing a course, place a check in the box and enter the grade received on the underline.
